

Every Church Should Have at Least Two KI Facilitators

Kaleidoscope Institute

An Accredited Kaleidoscope Institute Facilitator coordinates and facilitates inclusive small group meetings and dialogue sessions using the standard KI core gracious leadership tools, skills and processes.

Our Vision

Every church has at least 2 Accredited KI Facilitators who can:

- Facilitate on-going small group communities such as
 - Bible study groups
 - Dialogue groups on relevant topics
- Assist in facilitating gracious inclusive meetings
- Facilitate gatherings of people in the neighborhood to develop relationships and listen to their truth.

I am interested training leaders of my church to be KI Facilitators

Church/Ministry: _____

Denomination Affiliation: _____

Please contact me to let me know about the next facilitator training in my area. If a date has not been set, the best times for us are:

Contact Person:

Name: _____

Email: _____

Phone: _____

Comments:

Return this form to:

Kaleidoscope Institute, 840 Echo Park Ave., Los Angeles, CA 90026 , email: kscope@kscopeinstitute.org, 213-482-2040x216

The Accreditation Process:

Time: 6 months

Training:

- A 3.5 day initial KI Facilitator Training covering the basic KI skills:
 - Conocimientos
 - Respectful Community Guidelines
 - Mutual Invitation
 - Kaleidoscope Bible/Text Sharing
 - Gracious Invitation
 - Photolanguage
- Practicum: initiate and facilitate a small dialogue process in local church
- 1st one-day follow-up training:
 - Debrief learning from practicum
 - Apply facilitation skills to external community ministry
- Practicum: initiate and facilitate a neighborhood community event
- 2nd half-day follow-up training
 - Debrief learning from practicum
 - Apply facilitation skills to enhance group meetings including consensus building
- Practicum: Assist the planning and facilitation of an existing group meeting
- 3rd half-day follow-up training
 - Debrief learning from practicum
 - Commitment to practice as KI facilitators in churches and communities
 - Graduation

Cost: $750-$1500 per person

Go to www.kscopeinstitute.org to learn more.